

Psalm of the Kerygma Summit 2024

GIVE THANKS to the Lord, for he is good, his love endures forever.

Let the women of Kerygma TELL STORIES, for he gathered them from the north and the south, the east and the west in Franklin, TN, where he sang over them and celebrated them, and delighted in them.

Some Kerygma women were lonely, they were desperate to find a friend who cared enough to listen to a painful story. They strained under the burden of things that felt unsayable. They felt completely alone.

So they cried out to the LORD, and he sent them sisters and brothers who could share the burden of their story and break down those isolating walls.

GIVE THANKS to the LORD for making us a family that can TELL STORIES, the stories that formerly kept us separated from each other and from Him.

Some Kerygma women were distracted from true worship and true obedience by a culture obsessed with power and youth and wealth. They believed a lie that they had to look and act a certain way before they could possibly deserve love. So they cried out to the LORD, and he replaced that lie with the truth that they were already his favorite, every one of them.

GIVE THANKS to the LORD for his unfailing love, and let us TELL STORIES that celebrate his huge love for his children.

Some Kerygma women were taught that, especially in the eyes of God, they were worth less than their brothers in Christ. This evil story plunged them into darkness, into utter darkness.

So they cried out to the LORD, and he commissioned them to exercise leadership and their spiritual gifts with power and courage and love.

GIVE THANKS to the LORD for there is no one like him! Let us TELL STORIES that glorify his name and show that his love is in the center of it all.

For he is good, and his love endures forever.
AMEN.
